

MLIBISC SEMESTER II

COURSE: E-RESOURCES AND ONLINE DATABASES

COURSE CODE: MLIBAD01

COURSE TYPE: Add-On/Value Added

COURSE CONTACT HOURS: A total of 30 hour course with 2 hours/week

SYLLABUS

Objective:

- To create understanding on E-Resources and Online databases including how they are organized and how to search and use them effectively to discover relevant resources.

MODE OF EXECUTION

This course is conducted through live demonstration/discussion, with assignments and other exercises designed to train the students to effectively use and familiarize with a wide range of information resources.

Topics

1. Open Access Resources in Library and Information Science
2. Full text Databases
3. DELNET services and resources
4. Library Consortia of UGC INFLIBNET projects and programmes
5. MOOC's: A Vertical of SWAYAM, etc.
6. Searching databases and online catalogues, Library of Congress Online catalogues, OCLC, World CAT, British Library Online catalogues